

MIKE ADELBERG
DIRECTOR OF MEDICARE ADVANTAGE OPERATIONS
ACTING DIRECTOR OF THE DIVISION OF SPECIAL PROGRAMS

Mike Adelberg is the Director of Medicare Advantage Operations and the Acting Director of the Division of Special Programs in CMS's Center for Plan Choices where he is responsible for the Medicare Advantage application and contracting process and Medicare Advantage operations and program oversight. He is also charged with coordinating the programmatic support for each Part C product type, including Private Fee for Service, Regional PPOs, Special Needs Plans, and Medical Savings Accounts—as well as leading the contracting and oversight of PACE contracts. Earlier in his CMS career, Mike served as the Associate Regional Administrator for Medicare Operations in CMS's Chicago Regional Office and also as the Director of the Division for Community-Based Education and Assistance. Mike has also worked in the private sector – including as a Vice President for Product Development at a Medicare Advantage plan and as a consultant to health plans in the Medicare market. Mike began his career with Catholic Charities of Chicago, working in its Homes and Services for the Elderly division. Mike holds Masters degrees in Public Policy and History. In his spare time, he particularly enjoys coaching his older son's hockey team, building Lego spaceships with his younger son, reading Christopher Buckley novels, and cooking all manner of international cuisine.
