

Revisions to the NAIC's Annual Financial Reporting Model Regulation (Model Audit Rule) Archived Webinar

Latest Information!

Now available on demand!

The NAIC Executive Committee/Plenary adopted revisions to the Annual Financial Reporting Model Regulation (the Model Audit Rule) that went into effect on January 1, 2010. The revisions relate to auditor independence, corporate governance, and internal control over financial reporting. These revisions, the related Implementation Guide, and state adoption of the model were presented this year in several popular webinars by the NAIC.

If you were unable to participate in previous webinars, the NAIC is offering a recording of the presentation for learning at your own convenience. Register now to listen to the two-part 90-minute presentation and receive the complete slide presentation for download from this NAIC on-demand webinar, tailored specifically for industry. Please note this webinar is designed to serve as a high-level overview and is not intended to be a how-to guide for complying with new requirements around internal controls over financial reporting.
