Introduction to Statutory Accounting Principles

Two-Week Online Self-Study Course
Start on any Monday

If you are looking for the perfect primer on statutory accounting, there is simply no better training source than the NAIC and our Introduction to Statutory Accounting Principles course! This course serves as a foundational introduction to the NAIC's SAP series of learning events.

All of the basics are covered in these 11 units:

- Introduction to Insurance
- How to use the AP&P Manual
- Fundamental Statements
- SAP vs. GAAP Accounting
- Premium & Reserves
- Invested Assets – Bonds, Stocks, Fair Value
- Invested Assets – Mortgage Loans, Real Estate, Leases and Surplus Notes
- Invested Assets – Related Party Transactions, Goodwill and Limited Partnerships
- Premium Receivables and Non-admitted Assets, and EDP
- Liabilities and Contingencies
- Health Care Delivery Assets, Receivables and Adjustment Expenses

This course is designed for those who are new to statutory accounting or have very limited—2 years or less—experience with the application of statutory accounting principles.

NAIC's SAP series of learning events are among our most popular. Each year, hundreds attend our webinars and classes such as Introduction to Statutory Accounting Principles to learn the latest information, tips, and techniques for applying Statements of Statutory Accounting Principles (SSAPs) and related insurance accounting guidance.

Our Recommendations for Your Online Study

- Determine whether online learning is something you will benefit from by taking the short "Is Online Learning for Me" quiz at www.naiconline.org and check your technical requirements prior to enrolling.
- Plan your study time in advance.
 - Online courses offer great flexibility but also require self-motivation, commitment, good time management skills, and space in which to study. You need to be able to fit your study time into your own work schedule.
- Review your course materials that will arrive the week prior to the course.
- Set learning goals for yourself based on what you hope to accomplish by taking this class.
- Familiarize yourself with information in the course syllabus.
- Spend a minimum of two hours a day on your study.

Cancellation Policy

Withdrawals for full refund are permitted up to three weeks before your official start date; cancellations after this time will result in no refund. Notification of cancellation must be received in writing. If issued, refunds will be mailed as soon as possible. Substitutions are accepted up to one week before your official start date.
