Join us in Denver... and Unleash the 'Power of 3'

Come to the Mile High City, where we've gone the EXTRA mile to bring you three special sessions to highlight timely and topical insurance-related issues.

Workers' Compensation

8:00 a.m. – 11:30 a.m. — Friday, March 26

Sponsored by the Center for Insurance Policy & Research, this session features a panel of experts to discuss various issues regarding open ratings, underwriting and regulation of workers' compensation insurance. The session will include a special focus on the RAND study, "California's Volatile Workers' Compensation Insurance Market: Problems and Recommendations for Change."

Public Hearing: Insurance Contract Readability Standards

7:30 a.m. – 9:30 a.m. — Sunday, March 28

The Consumer Connections (D) Working Group will host this public hearing to examine readability and plain language in insurance contracts and other related documents, as well as to discuss other issues regulators could review regarding current standards. Discussion and testimony will focus on all lines of business.

Systemic Risk in Insurance: An Analysis of Insurance and Financial Stability

10:00 a.m. – 11:00 a.m. — Sunday, March 28

Presented by the International Insurance Relations (EX) Leadership Group, this session will include a presentation by Patrick M. Liedtke, Secretary General and Managing Director, the Geneva Association, as well as a discussion of measures recommended to strengthen financial stability, regulatory oversight, and industry risk practices.
