

CIPR Program: Can Regulation Keep up with Innovation

Monday, August 6th, 2018
3:00 p.m. – 5:00 p.m. Eastern

Please plan to join the NAIC Center for Insurance Policy and Research (CIPR) for its upcoming summer program, “Can Regulation Keep Up with Innovation.” The program is scheduled for Monday, August 6, 2018 from 3:00 p.m. - 5:00 p.m., followed immediately by a reception.

Insurance regulation has historically been able to evolve and adapt to keep pace with emerging trends and new developments. However, the pace and scope of change has increased in recent years, and this trend is expected to continue, as innovation and emerging technologies play a major role in transforming the insurance industry. This program will showcase a panel of insurance regulators, insurance industry innovators and academic thought-leaders that will explore the changes occurring in the insurance marketplace and the challenges faced by regulators as they attempt to keep pace with these changes

3:00 p.m. to 3:05 p.m. Welcome and Opening Remarks
—Eric A. Cioppa, NAIC President-Elect and Superintendent, Maine Bureau of Insurance

3:05 p.m. to 4:35 p.m. Panel Discussion
Moderator:
—Michael F. Consedine, NAIC Chief Executive Officer

Panelists:
—Nick Gerhart, Chief Administrative Officer, Farm Bureau Financial Services
— Doug Ommen, Commissioner, Iowa Insurance Division
— Michael S. Pieciak, Commissioner, Vermont Department of Financial Regulation
—Julie Sherlock, Head of Insurance Strategy, Boost Insurance
—Chester Spatt, Golub Distinguished Visiting Professor of Finance at the MIT Sloan School and Distinguished Senior Fellow at the Golub Center

4:35 p.m. to 4:55 p.m. Audience Q&A

4:55 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. Closing Remarks